Table Talk

Do you have a memory from a time in your life when someone's words that were said to you had a powerful impact? (whether good or bad)

Table Talk

Is there a specific scripture that stands out (God's words) that has had significant impact for you?

Table Talk

What area in your life (thoughts you spiral with) do you need to preach the gospel (words of truth) to yourself for encouragement and realignment? Discuss what scriptures or truths from God's word you could "preach" to yourself.

STEPS TO DESIGNING A WORD BOOK

1. With pencil make each letter: W-O-R-D.
Each letter should touch all sides of its square space and will touch its adjacent letter.
2. Erase any of the grid pencil lines that remain.
3. Color the interior of all the letters using the red colored pencil.
4. Using both the green and blue colored pencils, color in all the sections that remain.
5. Using the black PITT marker outline the letters and outside border. Do the outside border twice to make it a little thicker.
6. Using the white paint marker, decorate each letter with a different element/pattern. Ideas: flowers, cross, star, heart, dots, stripes, waves, diamond....
7. Using the metallic marker on the blue colored sections and the black colored PENCIL on the green sections, create "texture" by writing one of the following words over and over to fill the space. TRUTH, FAITH, PEACE, COURAGE, HOPE. Maybe use cursive!
8. Using the metallic silver marker, make dots all the way around and on top of the border to resemble lights on a marquee.
